

The Miley

Directions

Points of interest

- The Miley is part of the Dundee - Newtyle Railway, one of the first passenger-carrying railways in Scotland.
- Look out for Small Tortoiseshell and Red Admiral butterflies in the summer.
- Look out for flowers like Shepherds Purse, so-called due to its seed cases which resemble the pouches which medieval peasants wore on their belts.
