

Welcome to Barnhill Cemetery

Barnhill Cemetery, was created after the Parochial Board of Monifieth acquired the ground from the Earl of Dalhousie in 1870.

With extensions to the north and east, it is still a working cemetery, so please be aware of machinery and respectful of funeral ceremonies.

As well as the impressive older memorials, there are many fine trees and shrub specimens to be seen along the pathways.

Detailed burial information can be obtained from the Burial Administration section.
