

5 THE ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC ANALYSTS

The Association of Public Analysts represents all Public Analysts in the United Kingdom who hold the statutory appointment of "public analyst" under the Food Safety Act 1990.

The Association have nominated the Principal Scientific Services Officer/Public Analyst to serve as a member of their Council from 2003-2006. The nomination will involve four meetings per annum in London, the costs of which will be met from within the Environmental and Consumer Protection Department's Revenue Budget.

The Committee is requested to note the nomination of this officer.
