The street name of "Linlathen Road" (North of the A92 Arbroath Road) was approved at the Planning & Transportation Committee on 12th June, 2006. Due to the potential for further development in the area, approval is sought to use the name "Linlathen" adding on the appropriate title of Lane, Grove etc, to new roads which may be created as a result of this further development and which would lead directly off Linlathen Road.
