

8 BARNARDO'S SCOTLAND ANNUAL CONFERENCE - DUNDEE (AN199-2002)

It is reported that Barnardo's Scotland Annual Conference is to be held on Friday, 22nd November, 2002 (9.30 am to 4 pm) in the new APEX City Hotel, Dundee.

This year's conference theme is "Family Ties - who's looking after them today?". Speakers will highlight the diversity of families in the 21st century and the range of social, economic and political factors impacting on them.

Overall, the conference aims to explore the role of families today and share understanding of effective supports which help them achieve positive outcomes of children.

The Committee's instructions are requested regarding attendance of elected members. Cost of attending this one day conference is £105 per delegate.
