

2 CIVIC GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1982 – STREET NAMES CENTRAL WATERFRONT, DUNDEE (AN26-2015)

A consultation for street naming within the Central Waterfront commenced on 9 January 2015 and concluded on 6 February 2015.

There were no comments received on the suggested street names.

Committee is asked to approve the following new street names:

Proposed Name	Reason for Proposed name
Thomson Avenue	To commemorate James Thomson, former City Architect and City Engineer
South Union Street	To continue the link with Union Street and the City Centre and to reintroduce the name to this locality
Earl Grey Place West	To reintroduce the name to this locality
South Crichton Street	To continue the link with Crichton Street and the City Centre
South Castle Street	To continue the link with Castle Street and the City Centre
Earl Grey Place East	To reintroduce the name to this locality
South Commercial Street	To continue the link with Commercial Street and the City Centre
Riverside Esplanade	To continue the Riverside naming theme
South Castle Street	To continue the link with Castle Street and the City Centre
Patent Slip Way	To link with the site of the former patent slip within the docks. The patent slip was a railway track and cradle used to transfer a ship/boat from the river to the dock for repairs.

Committee is also asked to note that the naming of public spaces and footpaths within the Central Waterfront was put out for general consultation to the general public and suggested names were to be submitted to DCC for consideration by 6th February, 2015.

The suggested names have been collated and a body set up to discuss the names has met and put forward the following names for noting by Committee.

Proposed Space/Footpath	Name
Public Central Space	Slessor Gardens
Public Central Space adjacent to River	Waterfront Place
Public Space at Railway Station	Discovery Plaza
