

9 CIVIC GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1982 - PROPOSED NEW STREET NAMES (AN277-2006)

Proposed Name	Ward	Locations	Background
Emmock Woods Crescent Emmock Woods Grove	Claverhouse	West of Forfar Road/ North of Wm Fitzgerald Way	To continue with the previously agreed naming strategy for the area.
Friary Gardens	Law	Former Filling Station, City Road	Name suggested by Councillor Sturrock to keep links with the nearby Church

A new street naming strategy is required for the new streets within the proposed housing development at Linlathen, North of A92 Arbroath Road. A suggestion has been received from Broughty Ferry Community Council to name the streets after Scottish forests, and the local Councillor, the City Archivist and the developer have been consulted with upon this.

It is therefore proposed, subject to Committee approval, to use the following generic names for these new streets adding the appropriate title of road, lane etc when the detailed addresses are allocated.

Proposed Name
Craigvinean Glenfeshie Midmar Strathyre
