

8 SCOTLAND'S HEALTH AT WORK (AN417-2004)

Following submission of a portfolio of evidence and assessment visits Support Services Department, covering Administration Division, Legal Division, Architectural Services, Environmental Health and Trading Standards and Scientific Services, has been successful in achieving the SHAW bronze standard.

It is the aim of Scotland's Health at Work to make the active promotion of good health an integral part of Scottish corporate culture and the Support Services Department has contributed to this in a positive manner.

This award is valid for three years, during which time it is expected that the Department will maintain its bronze activity. The various Divisions of the Department will now work towards the silver award. The silver criteria will build on the Department's existing good practice and will help target activity in line with needs.
