Location

The City Centre is accessed from Marketgait, the inner ring road and Dock Street (A92), the A92 being a main arterial route between Aberdeen and Fife. Murraygate, the main shopping precinct in Dundee, is a bustling area with many household names, including Marks & Spencer, Tesco & Costa. Various streets run perpendicular to Murraygate, most notably Commercial Street, Castle Street and Reform Street, occupied by nationals and independents and is flanked by the Wellgate Centre, on the East and the Overgate Centre, on the West.

Description

The subjects comprise a first floor office suite situated to the rear of a 3-storey stone constructed terraced building originally built late 19th century and are currently Category B Listed. The main access is provided from Ward Road with access to the upper floors through a well maintained inner hall and communal stairwell. Internally the accommodation is arranged to provide cellular rooms which provide flexible commercial accommodation with potential for office/studio/treatment rooms/salon use with additional reception / waiting area, storage space and WC facilities. The accommodation is fitted out with a mixture of carpet and vinyl flooring, fluorescent strip lighting supplementing ample natural light through single glazed sash windows and wall mounted electric panel heaters.
