Notes

1. ~~The attention of candidates and electors is drawn to the rules for filling up nomination papers and other provisions relating to nomination contained in the parliamentary elections rules in Schedule 1 to the Representation of the People Act 1983.~~
2. Where a candidate is commonly known by some title he may be described by his title as if it were his surname.
- 2A. Where a candidate commonly uses a name which is different from any other name he has, the commonly used name may also appear on the nomination paper, but if it does so, the commonly used name (instead of any other name) will appear on the ballot paper.
- 2B. But the ballot paper will show the other name if the Returning Officer thinks -
  - (a) that the use of the commonly used name may be likely to mislead or confuse electors, or
  - (b) that the commonly used name is obscene or offensive.
3. An elector may not subscribe more than one nomination paper for the same election.
4. A person whose name is entered in the register may not subscribe a nomination paper if the entry gives as the date on which he will become of voting age is a date later than the day fixed for the poll.
5. A candidate supported by a certificate of authorisation signed by the Nominating Officer of a political party (or someone on their behalf) may use the party name or a description allowed by that certificate and registered with the Electoral Commission. A candidate may stand on behalf of two or more different parties and use a registered joint description if supported by certificate(s) of authorisation from each of the parties. Any candidate may alternatively use the description of 'Independent' (and/or 'Annibynol' in Wales), or leave the description box blank.
