

2 CIVIC GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1982 - STREET NAMES (AN14-2022)

(a) HOUSING DEVELOPMENT – LAND AT 201-207 PITKERRO ROAD

A consultation was carried out between 30th November, 2021 and 17th December, 2021 for a new street name at the above location.

The consultation correspondence was sent to Ward Councillors, Convener, City Archivist, local community representatives and the developer.

A street name associated with the Dighty Burn was suggested which runs north of the site. Following discussion, it was agreed to promote a street name to reflect this but due to a conflict with an existing street name, it is proposed to allocate the following name - Dighty Burn Court.

Committee is therefore asked to approve the following street name:

Dighty Burn Court.

(b) HOUSING DEVELOPMENT – LAND AT 201-207 PITKERRO ROAD

A consultation was carried out between 7th January and 28th January, 2022 for a new street name at the above location.

The consultation correspondence was sent to Ward Councillors, Convener, City Archivist, Council Officers and the Developer.

The developer has suggested naming the new street to commemorate Cairn Rankine who lost his life adjacent to the site. The developer has discussed this with the Rankine family and they have consented to the name being put forward.

No other suggested names were put forward as part of the consultation.

It is therefore proposed to name the new street as Cairn Avenue.

Committee is therefore asked to approve the following street name:

Cairn Avenue.
