

5 DUNNICHEN STONE (AN339-2006)

The ten-year loan agreement between Dundee City Council and Angus Council for the sculpted Pictish symbol stone, known as the Dunnichen Stone, expires on 30 September 2006. The Dunnichen stone is loaned by McManus Art Galleries and Museum to the Meffan Institute, Forfar.

It is recommended that the committee approves the renewal of this agreement for a further five years allowing the stone to remain on public display at the Meffan Institute.
