

2	UK Parliamentary election	Certificate of authorisation
----------	----------------------------------	-------------------------------------

To accompany the nomination of a candidate standing on behalf of a registered political party. Candidates standing on behalf of two or more parties require a certificate from each party and each must allow the registered joint description to be used

Constituency name	Date of election

This certificate must be issued by the registered Nominating Officer of the party or by a person authorised to sign on their behalf.

This certificate authorises the candidate to use a specific registered description or the name of the party as registered with the Electoral Commission, or to use 'any registered description or the party name as registered with the Electoral Commission'.

This authorised party name or description can then be included by the candidate on the nomination form. It is this which will appear as their description on the ballot paper. Party names and registered descriptions are listed on the Electoral Commission's website: <http://search.electoralcommission.org.uk>.
